Foreword

Greenville High School next year will move to another location; the present building will be a junior high school. All graduates and potential graduates of G.H.S. as well as the faculty, administration, parents, and community have made our school what it is—its traditions, customs, and high prestige have evolved through our endeavors.

In planning this yearbook the staff decided to use as its theme, "Challenge," a challenge for forthcoming classes of G.H.S. to make their school as successful as we have made ours.

"So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
So near is God to man.
When Duty Whispers low, Thou Must
The youth replies, I can."

—Emerson

Dedication

The class of 1962, the last class to graduate from this Greenville High School building, dedicates the 1962 Chief to all the people who have contributed to the history of G.H.S.

Greenville High School

The colored pictures in our introductory section symbolize Greenville High School. Each represents a phase of our school life in which each of us has had a part.

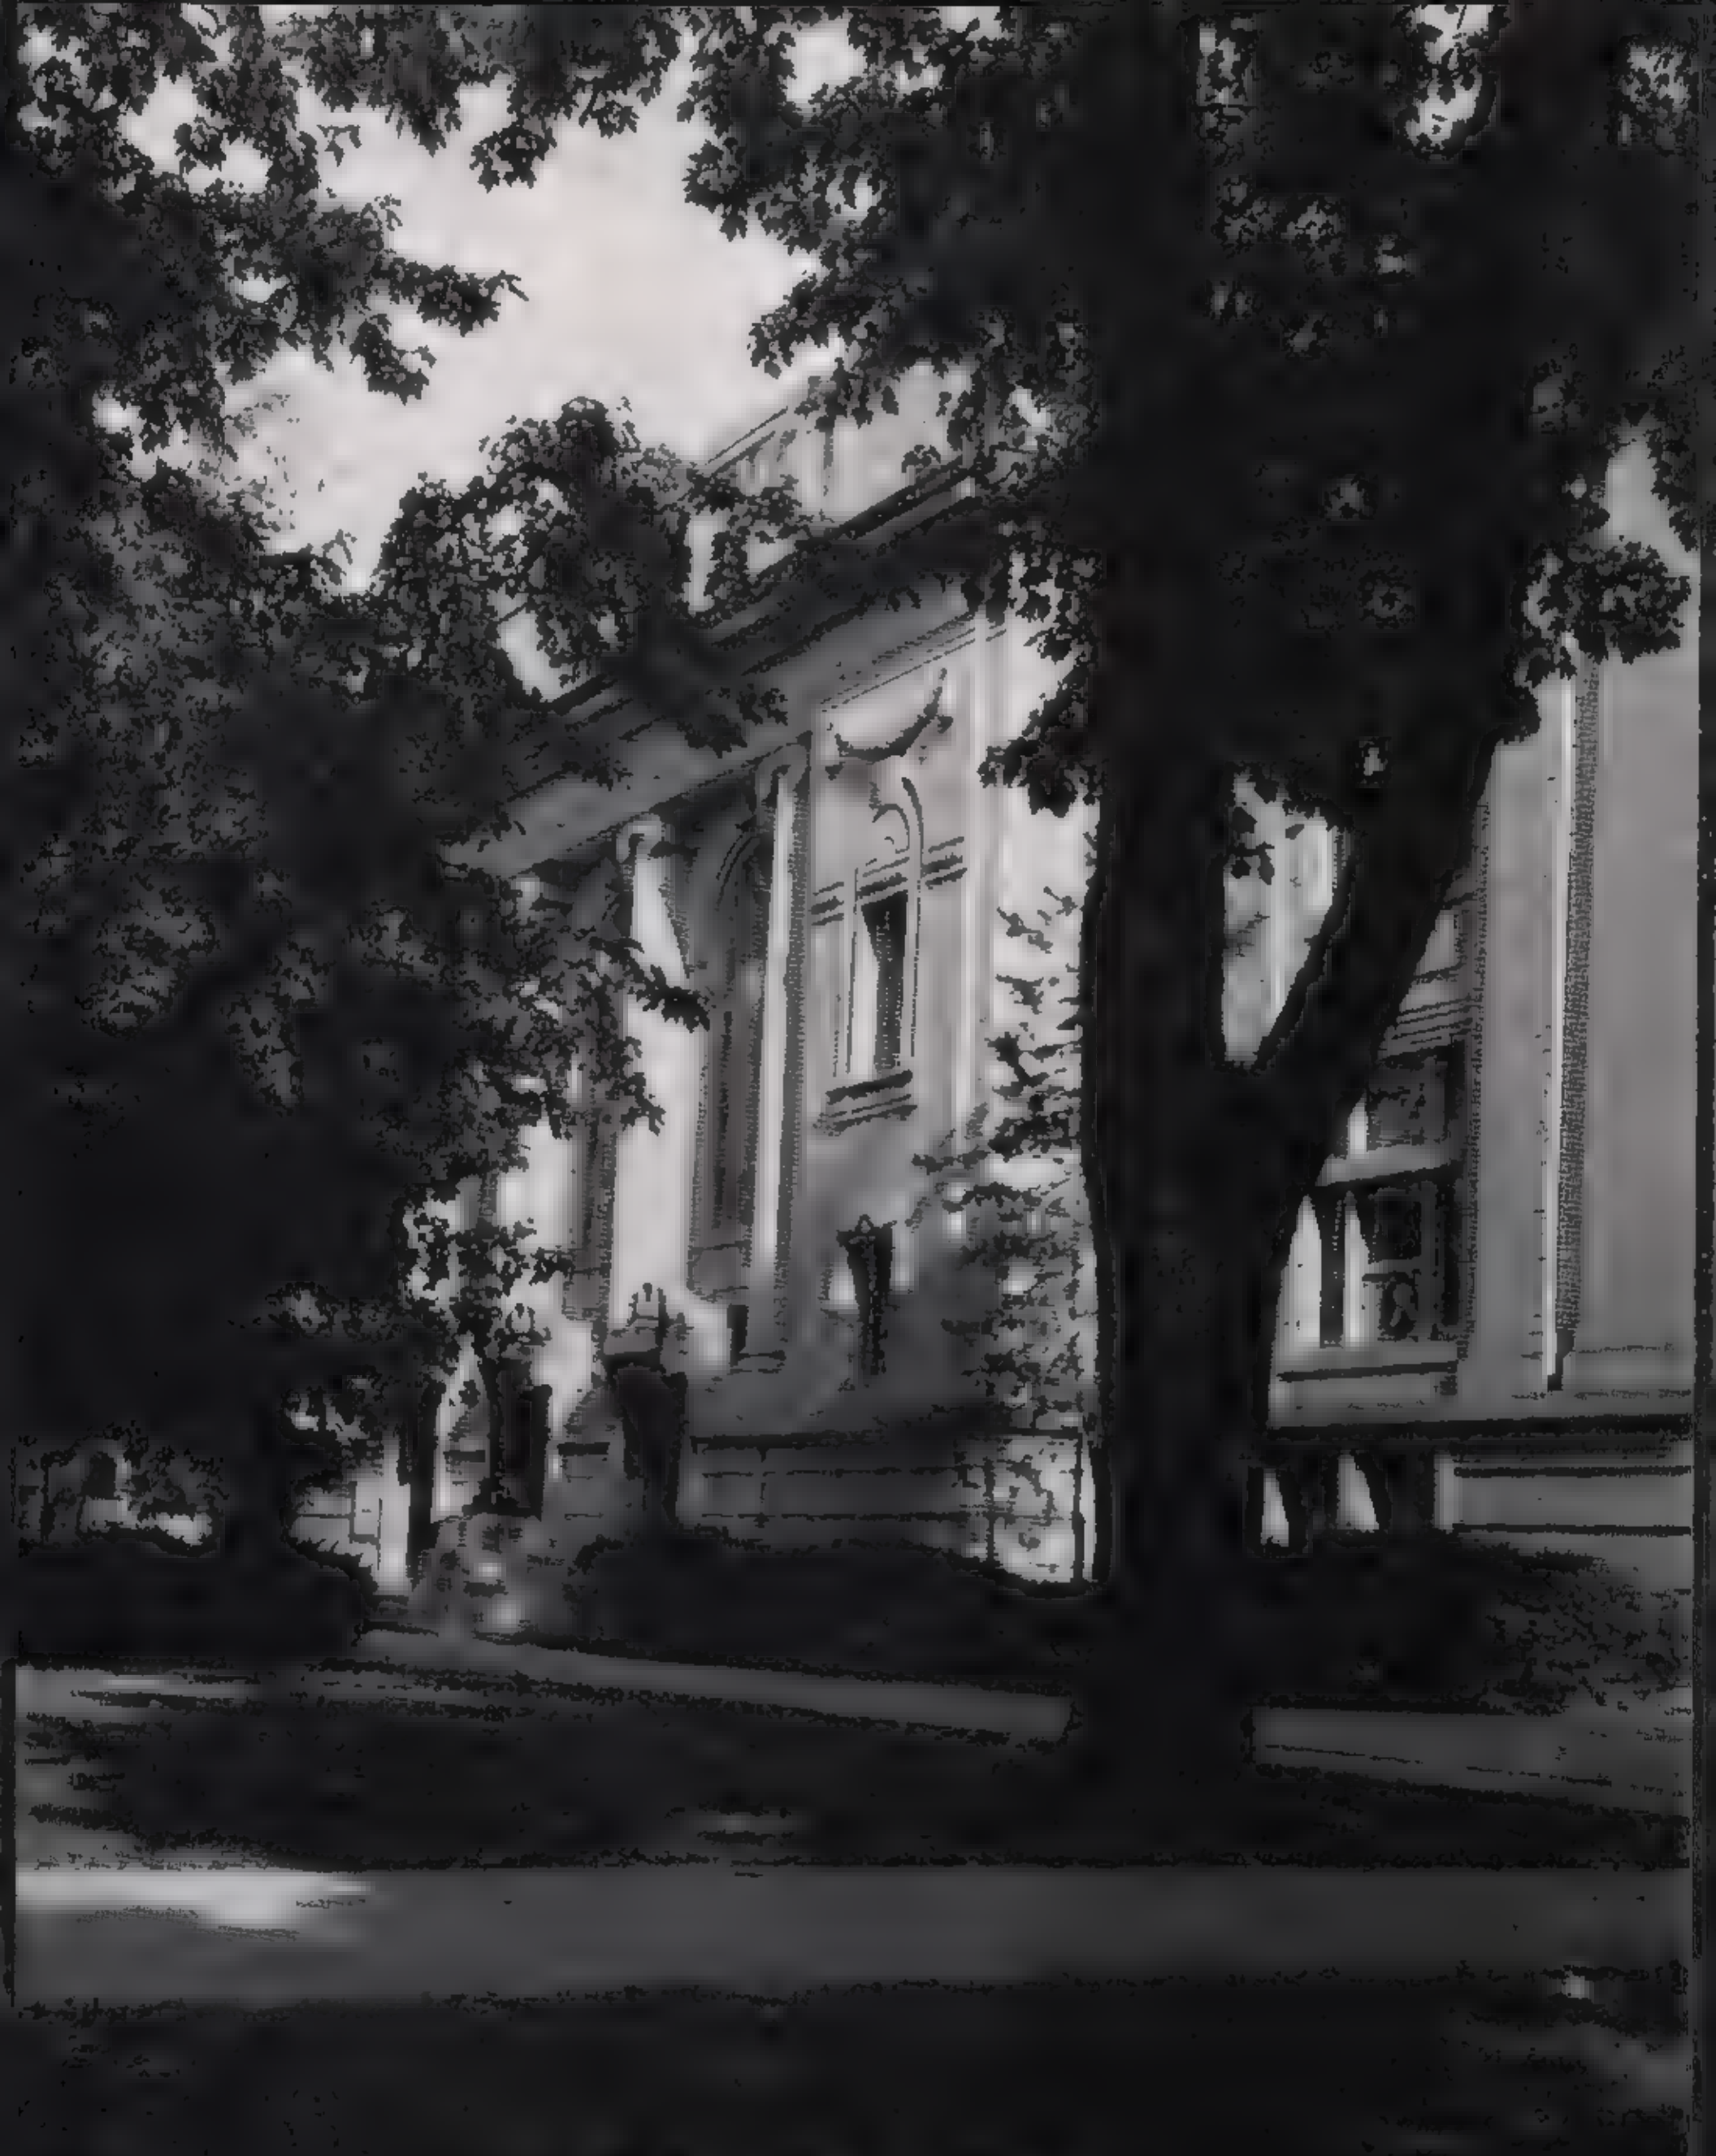

The first picture portrays not only education at G.H.S. but also the many friendships formed during the four years.

The cheerleaders who represent such sports as golf, tennis, basketball, cross country, track, baseball, and football depict our wide interest in athletics.

The two couples in formal attire picture our many activities at G.H.S.—the organizations, projects, and the memorable proms and dances.

On this page, the A Cappella Choir denotes the talents of the G.H.S. students. They present musicals, plays, and assemblies throughout the year.

Yes, G.H.S. has all these things. Each one has made our life here more interesting and challenging. Each one has given us an opportunity to become a better person.

ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY

Greenville High School's administration is efficiently organized and qualified personnel fulfill the job.

The faculty is the best any high school can want. They not only help us in the fields of science, business, literature, etc., but also assist in the extra-curricular activities of G.H.S. They are patient and understanding, ready for any assistance needed by a student.

We are grateful to our teachers for all they have done for us. They have given us their time and knowledge so that we may become better citizens.

Faculty and administration, you will always be in our hearts no matter how far from G.H.S. we may go.

Superintendent

Beryl Hensel has served Greenville High School as the superintendent for four years. He has been in school work for eighteen years. From Ohio State University, Mr. Hensel has Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees. He has done graduate work at Miami University.

Assistant Superintendent

William Maxwell has been assistant superintendent for the last three and a half years. He served as the principal of the East Elementary School for seventeen years before his present position. A Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University and a Master of Arts degree from Miami University are held by Mr. Maxwell.

Board of Education

The Board of Education, which is elected by the public, hires teachers, keeps records, studies facilities, and provides for the general welfare of the school, its organization, and members.

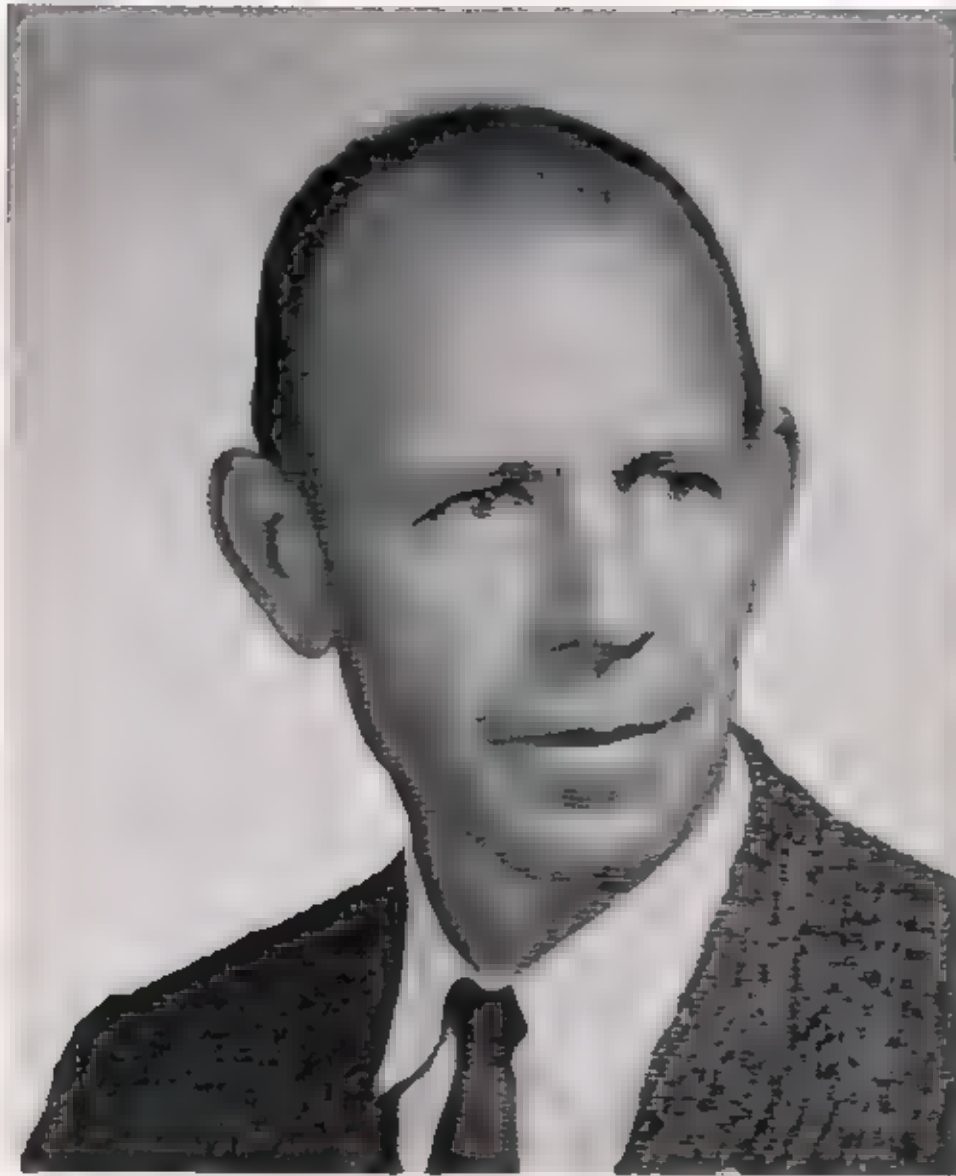

Robert Wilson, President

Robert Kolp, Clerk

Principal

Coney Cornett served the Greenville high school as biology instructor for two years before becoming principal. He is now serving in this capacity for the third year.

From Eastern Kentucky State College, Mr. Cornett earned his Master's degree. Advanced work was done at Morehead State College as a result of the Corning Glass Company Scholarship he received in 1959.

Mr. Cornett confers with Lois Enochs about schedule changes.

In Memoriam

C. R. HAWES
1906-1962

Mr. Hawes began his teaching career at G.H.S. in September of 1944. He had a constant desire to help young boys and became director of the Greenville Boys' Club in 1948. He was admired and respected by all who knew him. Mr. Hawes is greatly missed by all of us.

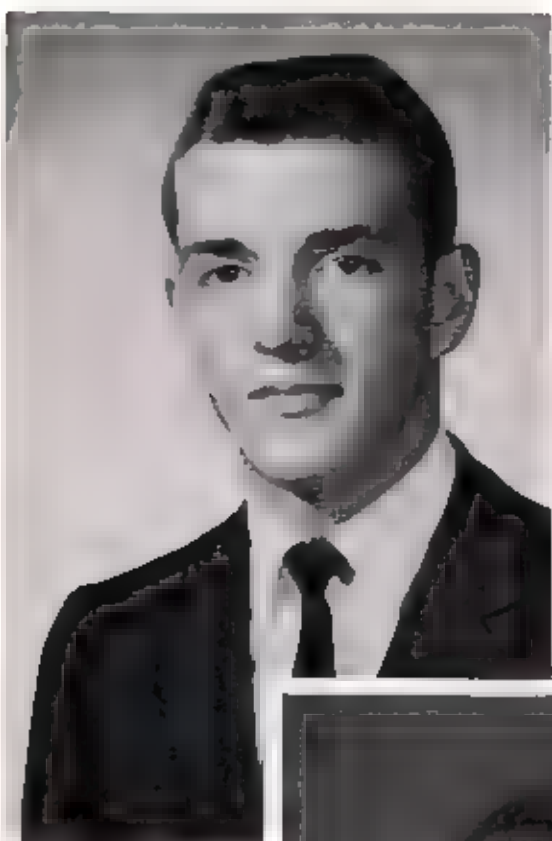

SENIORS

We, the members of the Senior Class of '62, have finally attained the goal we set out to achieve when we entered G.H.S. in 1958 as freshmen. Throughout the four years, graduation sometimes seemed to be in the far future. We struggled through exams. Although sometimes we felt that we couldn't wait to leave school, when graduation finally arrived, we realized how much school had meant to us.

When we were freshmen, we enjoyed a picnic. In our sophomore year, we had our 50-50 Dance, "Frantic Frolic." The big moment really arrived when we presented the prom, "In the Gardens of the Gods." The class plays "Cheaper By The Dozen" and "Harvey" also contributed to our eventful high school lives.

Ushers

At the end of the first semester of their junior year the top sixteen girls of the class of '62 received the honor of becoming ushers for the ensuing year. They began their duties in 1961 by ushering for the Senior Class play. Their duties included escorting people to their seats and distributing programs. During their senior year they ushered for the junior class play, musicals, all assemblies, and any other activity held in the Memorial Hall.

STANDING: Sally Smith, Beverly Goodwin, Jennifer Lamy, Gail Wade, Carmen Johnson, Collette Spidel, Ann Straker, Peg Marchal, and Susan Westerman.

The two girls who rank highest scholastically serve as head ushers. This year Linda Zimmers was the head usher downstairs, while Susan Schaar was the head usher in the balcony. Their principal duties were to take tickets and instruct the other ushers as to where the people were to be seated.

Linda Zimmers and Susan Schaar.

Magazine Sales

Each year The Chief is financed by the sale of magazine subscriptions. This year the seniors sold $7870.45 worth of magazines.

Members of the class who had sales over $30 were presented with certificates. Those selling $100 worth were given gold pins.

Each day the two students who sold the most magazines signed their names on autograph dolls. At the end of the drive the two high salesmen were allowed to keep these dolls.

Collette received a stereo phonograph and Gary, a transistor radio because they were the high salesmen for the campaign.

Buckeye Girls' State

Linda Zimmers was the delegate from Greenville High School to the 1961 Buckeye Girls' State at Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

Linda, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, personality, and her interest in American government. Susan Schaar was chosen as alternate.

The purpose of the eight-day event was to teach the youth of Ohio more about their state government.

While attending the conference, Linda was director of the Girls' State Orchestra and Director of Safety for Cook City.

Buckeye Boys' State

Tom Halley, John Moores, Mike Klein, and Charles Slagle were selected by the American Legion as delegates to the 1961 Buckeye Boys' State at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio.

They were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, personality, and interest in American government. Keith Caupp, Bill Neal, and Richard Scholl were selected as alternates.

Charles and Mike were officers in the Boys' State Highway Patrol. John was a lawyer and Tom was a City Clerk of Courts.

The boys learned methods used in running the state government and gained experience in practicing self government.

SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP PLACERS

This year Mary Overmyer was a Merit finalist; she hopes to win a scholarship to the college of her choice.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIP QUALIFIERS

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, a screening device of the National Merit program, was given to the seniors in their junior year. Some students participate in the program with hopes of winning a Merit Scholarship. Others take the test to see how they compare with students throughout the nation, or for college admission purposes. These qualifiers received letters of commendation because of their high scores on the test.

Muriel Mulder, Linda Zimmers, Mary Overmyer, Carmen Johnson, Don Willis, Keith Caupp.

Valedictorian

Linda Zimmers ranked highest scholastically in the class of 1962 during all four years of high school. Linda was a member of the marching band, orchestra, President of FTA, and associated with French and Latin Clubs. During her junior year she was elected to the National Honor Society and attended Buckeye Girls' State.

Salutatorian

Susan Schaar ranked second scholastically in the class of 1962. Susan was President of GAA, Secretary of the Latin Club, and active in many other school activities. She was elected to the National Honor Society as a junior, and President of the Society her senior year.

CLASSES

At the center of all the bustling activity at Greenville High School are its 905 students. These students are divided into classes of 172 seniors, 179 juniors, 231 sophomores, 328 freshmen. This year will be the last time that G.H.S. houses all four classes under one roof.

Each class is like an individual unit with its own class officers and sponsors. Each plans its own special activities which include such things as dances, plays, picnics, and parties.

Each class has individuality, and yet each co-operates and works with the others as one unit—Greenville High School.

ORGANIZATIONS

Included with scholastic efforts and class activities at Greenville High School are over twenty organizations which cover the many interests of the students. During the year the members receive much enjoyment from the club activities, such as dances, picnics, banquets, fund-raising drives, concerts, and musicals. More important than the pleasure received, however, is the character which is developed in the students. Through these extracurricular activities, students learn to accept and meet responsibilities and to get along with others. In this way, participation in such groups enables them to complete that part of their education which cannot be obtained in the classroom.

Annual Staff

Following election at the close of their junior year, the 1962 Chief staff began planning the book during the summer. Jim Labig, Collette Spidel, Susan Westerman, and Mary Overmyer attended the journalism clinic at Ohio University in June. The annual Senior magazine sale in the fall financed the Annual. The staff appreciated Mrs. Griner's and Mrs. McPherson's help, and they are especially indebted to Mr. Phelps for the patience and time he gave to the Annual pictures.

Mrs. Griner started the staff working in the fall. Following her accident, Mrs. McPherson was appointed to guide the members for the remainder of the year.

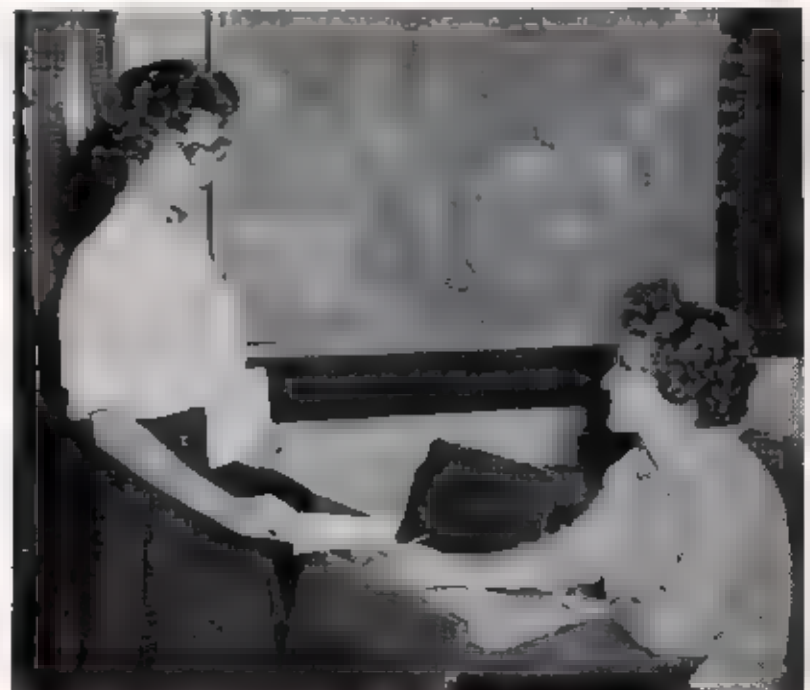

Annual Staff members met on alternate Monday and Tuesday nights to prepare their sections of the annual. Working in the Guidance office are Ilona Jekabsons, Jim Alexander, and Kerth Caupp.

Student Council

The Student Council, which serves as a link between student body and the faculty, conducted the election of Homecoming and Polio Queens. In addition the members, who must have a 2.3 grade average, sponsored a dance following a basketball game, Parents Night at the Miamisburg football game, and bookcover and briefolio sales. James Holzapfel, Dean of Boys, sponsors the sixteen-member council. Two boys and two girls are elected from each class.

Bob Marker and Larry Myers escort their parents across the field at Parents Night, November 10.

Students contributed to the Polio Queen Fund. One penny was a vote for the candidate of the student's choice. Patsy Cronin was this year's queen. Barb Markwith and Debbie Hammond were the other candidates.

The council's money-making project was the sale of bookcovers and brieffolios. Officers are: Vic Marshall, treasurer; John Moores, president; Bill Ilg, vice-president; James Holzapfel, sponsor, and Reberta Drew, secretary.

National Honor Society

Nine juniors and twenty-six seniors were received into National Honor Society at the annual tap assembly. The new members, selected by the faculty on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, were inducted by Coney Cornett, Beryl Hensel, and the eight Senior members from last year. Five per cent and fifteen per cent are chosen from the upper one fourth of the Junior and Senior classes, respectively.

Mr. Cornett and members welcome Beverly Goodwin into the National Honor Society.

Stage Crew

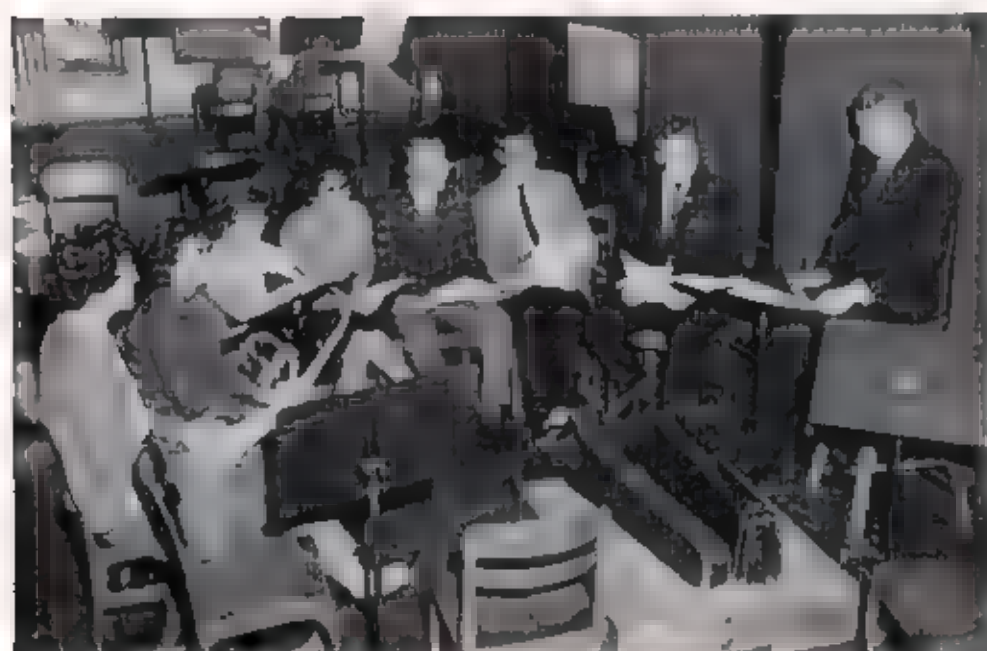

Stage boys help build a set for one of the class plays.

Members of the stage crew provide a vital service to the school. These boys are responsible for curtains, lighting, sound effects, and stage settings for all programs and assemblies that take place in Memorial Hall. They also assist with dance decorations in the gym.

Bob Alspaugh received the medal award given to senior stage crew members.

Crew members Charles Anthony, Charles Schmidt, John Neff, Bob Alspaugh, Bruce Enochs, Jim Rife, and Gary Bickel examine a balcony light.

The band council makes and enforces rules and plans activities for both marching and concert band. Members Marilyn Cool, reporter; Lynn Aukerman, Barbara Markwith, secretary-treasurer; Sandra Westfall, Mike Reck, Kenny McCoy, Doug Upton, vice-president, and Don Willis, president, meet at a monthly session.

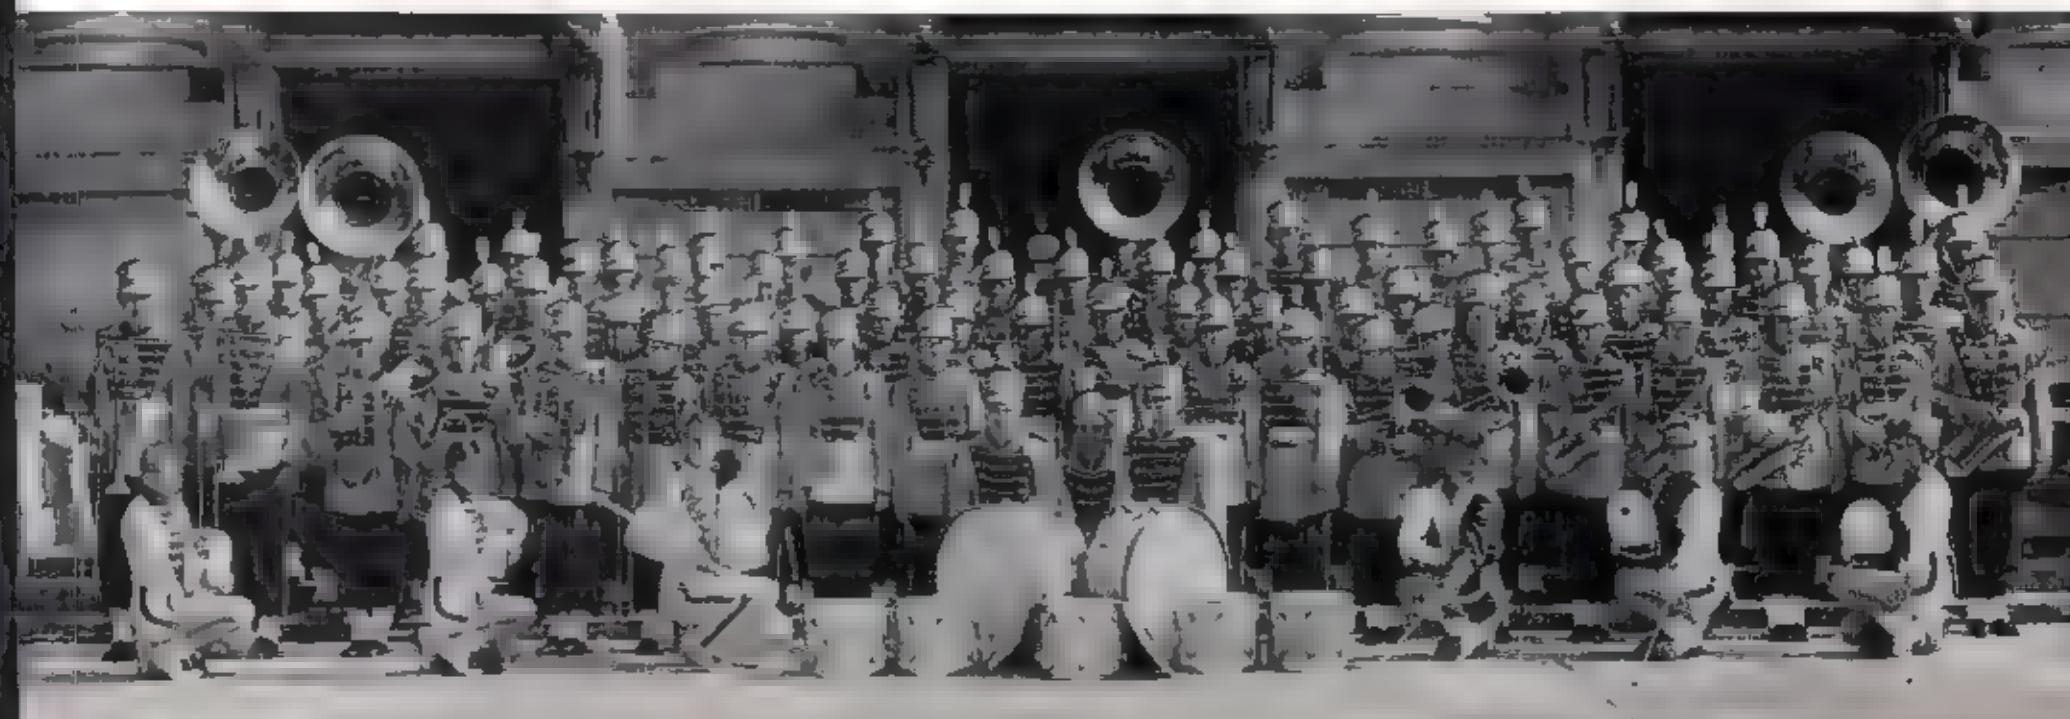

The marching band drilled daily during class and twice a week after school. Director John McCoy observes students as they practice the traditional revolving "G."

Don Willis, drum major, and majorettes, Alice Morrison, Sue Thomas, Jane Fender, head majorette; Judy Zechar, and Connie Heiser led the marching band.

As marching season drew to a close, Greenville High School's concert band was organized for practice. The musicians performed in the Winter Musical, at a public concert in February, and at the annual concert in May. The group also sold candy in February and took a trip in the spring.

Greenville High School's marching band performed at all football games and took part in parades at Halloween, on Memorial Day, and at the Drake County fair.

Each year orchestra students are chosen from Greenville High School to participate in the South Western Ohio Regional Orchestra. Members for 1961 were: BOTTOM ROW: Mary Virginia Fry, John Neff, Nancy Arens, Judy Bisel, Beth Rhynard. TOP ROW: Sue Steck, Bill Light, Mr. Brown.

Greenville High School's orchestra, directed by Dwight Brown, performed at the Winter and Spring Musicals. The students also provided music for the class plays and participated in the Concert Band in the annual spring concert. Judy Bisel served as concert mistress.

Mr. Brown conducts the orchestra during a daily class period.

Second on the program at the Winter Musical was the Boys' Chorus. The 115 boys were directed by Miss Elizabeth Hill and accompanied by Sue Steck.

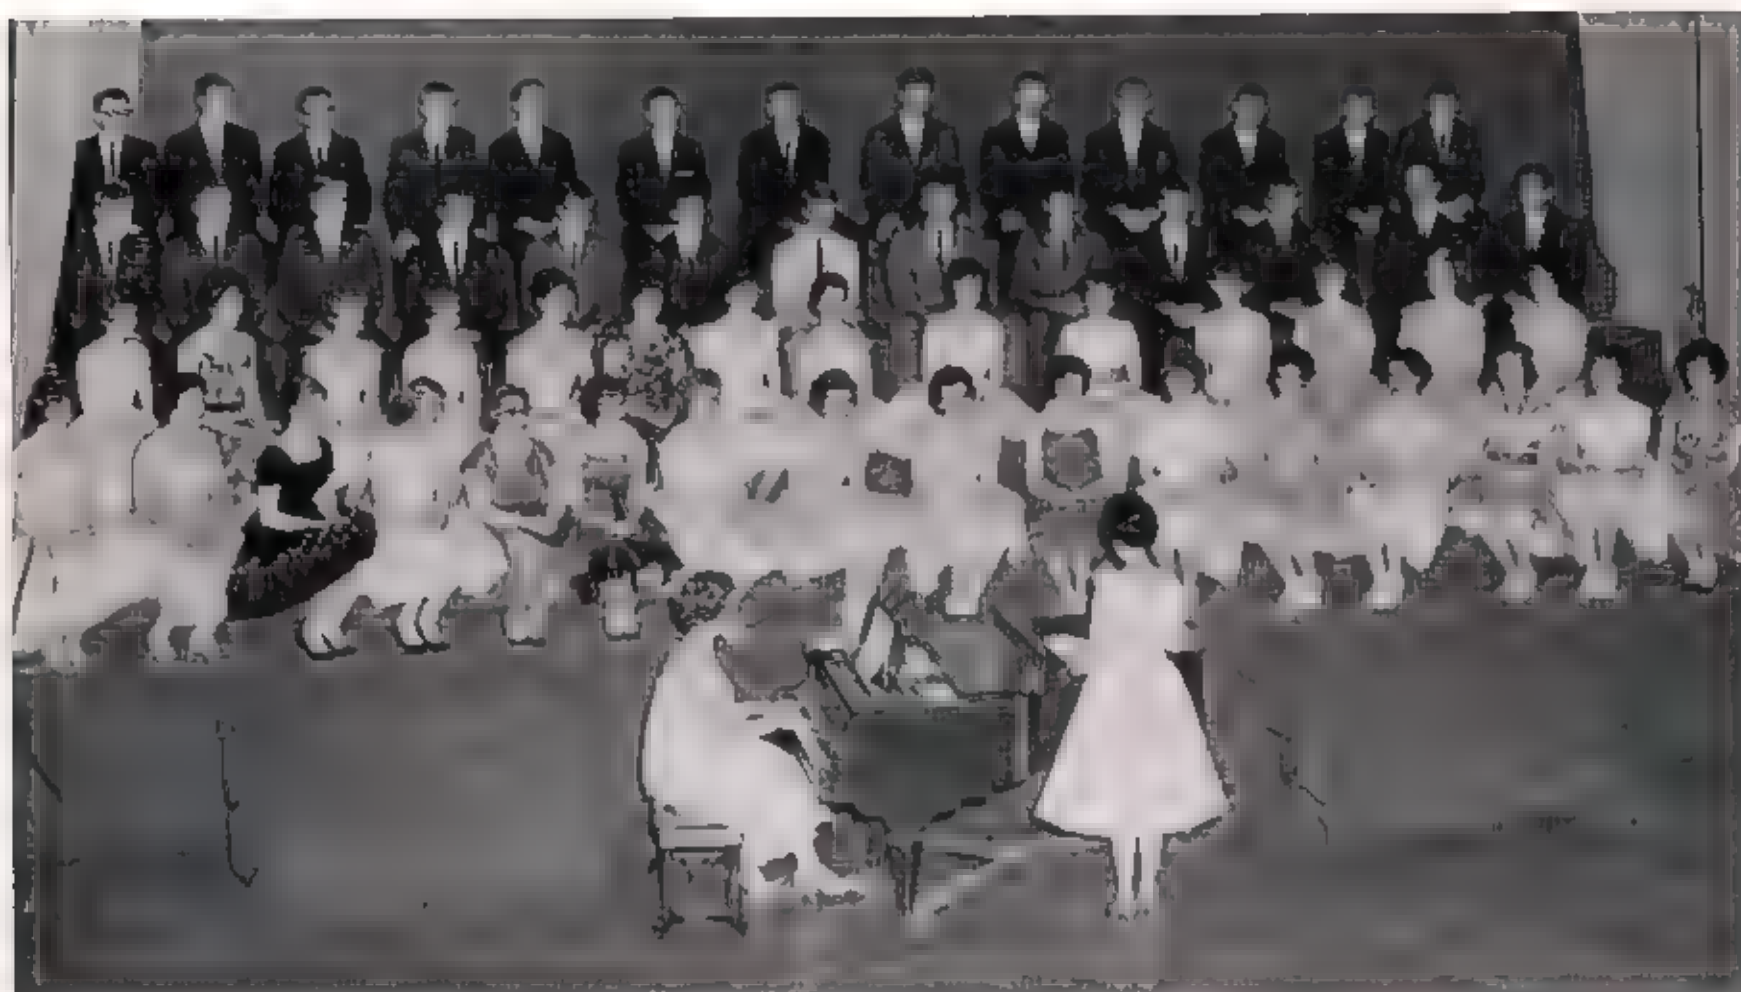

Miss Hill instructs one of the boys' classes which meet twice a week.

The Girls' Chorus, directed by Miss Elizabeth Hill and accompanied by Sue Steck, was the largest ever this year. The 250 girls filled the stage when they performed for the annual Winter Musical.

A Cappella Choir

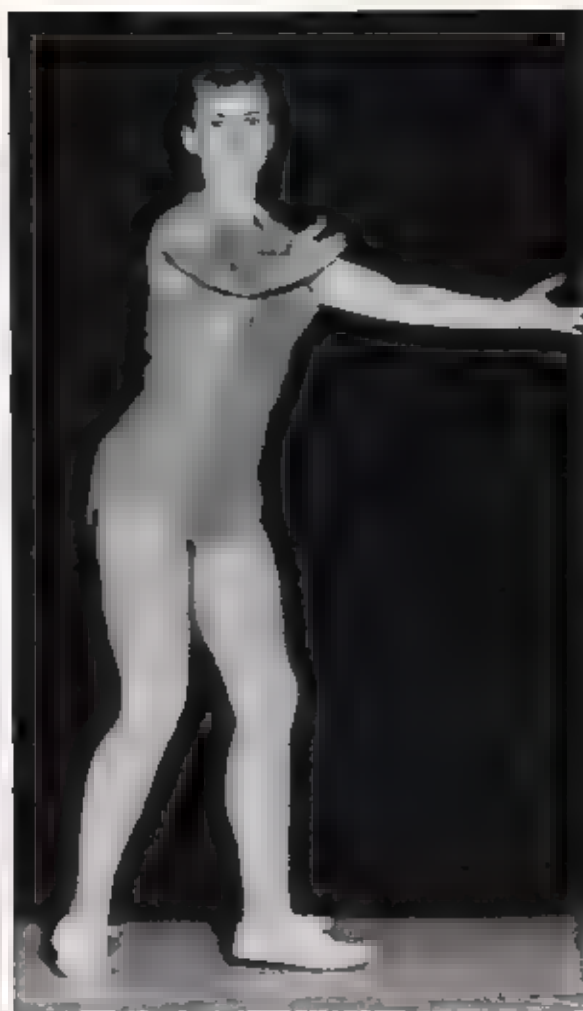

Directed by Miss Elizabeth Hill and accompanied by Sue Steck, this year's A Cappella Choir was composed of fifty-eight Juniors and Seniors. Performances of the group included the Homecoming Assembly, Winter Musical, Christmas Assembly, Community Palm Sunday Services, and Easter Assembly. The choir also sang for the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs during the Christmas Season. "The Talk of the Town," the Spring Musical, was the final performance of the full choir. Junior members sang at Baccalaureate services.

Sponsored by Mrs. Neff, art instructor, Art Club members decorated the Hasty Tasty restaurant for holidays. As another activity they compiled a list of pictures and their locations in the high school building. The Art Club also assisted committees decorating for dances and other functions. This year at their meetings various members gave talks on different artists, their particular type of art and their place in history. Other programs included talks by commercial artists. The Art Club sponsors a trip to the Dayton Art Institute and Museum of Natural History every spring. To become a member, a student must have completed one semester of art with a "C" average.

Officers, SEATED: Kay Zerkle, reporter; Carmen Johnson, president. STANDING: Leslie Keane, secretary-treasurer; Carolyn Gatchell, vice-president; Mrs. Neff.

Biology Club

New members are admitted to Biology Club after one semester of biology with an "A" grade or after one year with a "B" grade. The club program included visits to educational institutions, guest speakers, and group and individual projects.

Officers of the club, which organized in May, 1961, were Becky Blocher, president; Harold Toy, vice-president; Phylis Scheidweiler, secretary; and Diane Fry, treasurer.

This year's officers are: Diane Cox, treasurer; Connie Knick, vice-president; Gail Wade, president; and Peg Marchal, secretary. Mr. McKenney is the sponsor.

Carolyn Marker, Ellen Petry, Fran Harding, and Janice Barrett put the finishing touches to the annual dance "Camelot"

Cabinet members, SEATED: Patsy Cronin, treasurer; Susan Schaar, president. STANDING: Barbara Birt, freshman representative; Maureen Mote, publicity chairman; Connie Barnhardt, football stand chairman; Jeanne Hufnagle, program chairman; and Gail Wade, reporter, help hang streamers as members work to complete dance decorations.

Any high school girl may join Girls' Athletic Association, but to retain her membership she must earn 175 points each semester by participating in various sports. With Miss Julia Boston as their advisor, the girls played on the varsity and reserve volleyball and basketball teams, maintained the refreshment stand at the football stadium, and had their annual formal dance, "Camelot," in November. New officers were installed at the spring banquet. They also participated together in archery and bowling, although it was not under school supervision.

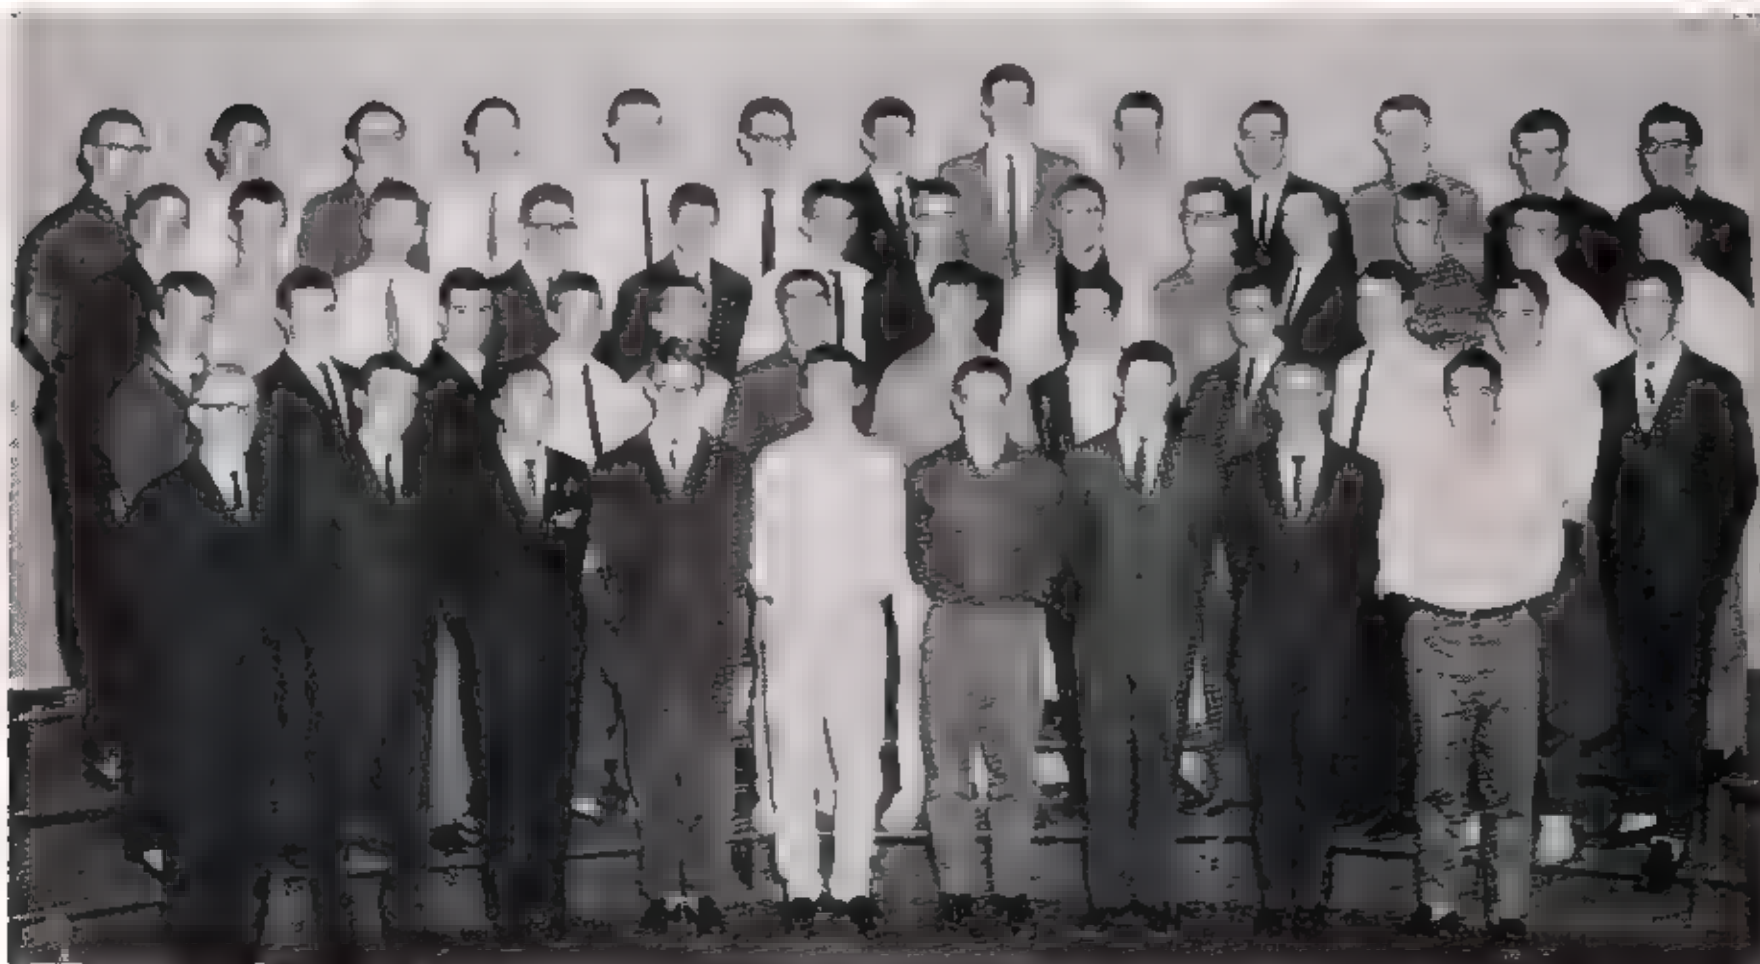

Workers in the refreshment stand are Cabinet members Mary Overmyer, second vice-president; Judy Grodensky, publicity chairman; Jennifer Lamy, secretary; Gail Stanton, program chairman; Nancy Arens, first vice-president, and Melody Brown, football chairman.

G.A.A. members provide refreshments which are available both in the stadium and at the refreshment stand for football spectators.

ATHLETICS

Athletics play a large part in the life of Greenville High School. Many boys participate during the year in the seven sports offered. This participation in athletics not only builds the physical stature of the boys, but also prepares them in many ways for the future. Athletics teach the boys teamwork, co-operation, and the ability to accept defeat. Athletics also include the "G" Association, special activities, and the pride of wearing a "G."

Board of Control

LARRY MYERS WINS RAUDABAUGH TROPHY

Larry Myers was this year's recipient of the Jack Raudabaugh Trophy. This trophy is presented by Mr. Raudabaugh each year to a senior athlete who meets the highest standards of sportsmanship and service. The trophy, with the winners' names engraved on it, is displayed in the trophy case.

All-Sports Banquet

Bill Steinmetz, the Master of Ceremonies

Tom Blackburn speaks

The annual All-Sports banquet was held on May 9, at the Woodland Heights School. It was sponsored by the Green Wave Booster's Association. It was held to honor the senior athletes. The speaker for the evening was Tom Blackburn, coach of the Dayton Flyers, 1962 N.I.T. Champs. Mr. Blackburn spoke pertaining to the importance of athletes being left to play the game the way the coaches thought best.

Later in the evening, all senior athletes were given gold awards representative of the sports in which they participated.

STUDENT LIFE

Student life is the faction of our life at Greenville High School that consists of the extra-curricular activities and student talent. The banquets, the class plays, the parties, the picnics, the assemblies, and the proms are all a part of student life.

These activities provide companionship, entertainment, and form a basis for responsibility and sportsmanship growth. They bring out the best in the students and help in personality development. Student life makes G.H.S. a center of fun as well as learning.

Homecoming

Letitia Brinley 1960-61 Queen crowns Donna Grimes as the 1961-62 Homecoming Queen.

On October 13, 1961, the traditional homecoming ceremony was held during halftime of the Greenville—Troy game. The candidates, Marilou Blumenstock, Beverly Goodwin, Donna Grimes, Alice Ann Morrison, Collette Spidel, Ann Straker, Georgia Swabb, were driven around the cinder track in donated cars. They were then escorted across the football field from the opposite side by Ron Eisenhour, Gary Toman, Richard Hathaway, John Weiler, Keith Caupp, Steve Beigel, and Ed Kagey, respectively. Last year's queen, Letitia Brinley, escorted by John Moores, crowned the new regent, Donna Grimes, while the Greenville High School marching band played "The Sweet-Heart of Sigma Chi."

After the football game had been completed, a dance was held in the park dance hall in honor of the girls.

Dear Reader,

So ends our planning, copywriting, proofreading, and publishing our "Chief" has been completed! The task was a great one and many thanks are due to so many wonderful people who helped.

On behalf of the staff, I wish to thank the Taylor Publishing company, especially Matt McCormick, Dick Kennard, and Dave Sturgeon for their work and assistance. Thanks to Osborne Studios and Eugene Phelps for the photography. We are indebted to Tom KcKenney for his help with the magazine drive. The staff is deeply grateful to Mary McPherson and Kathryn Griner for their advice and patience during the year.

Personally, I want to thank every one of the staff members. You have done an excellent job and I am thankful for your moral support when times were rough. It was wonderful to have such a co-operative staff. Thanks for a memorable experience.

In closing we thank you, the reader, for purchasing this yearbook and hope that it will provide you with years of happiness as it brings back memories of 1962.

Sincerely,

Ilona Jekabsons
